Tennessee chooses a governor and railroad commissioner and Pennsylvania, a governor and two other state officials.

THOUSANDS
Government Employees Go Home To Cast Their Votes.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 3.—The approach of election day has brought on a Sunday quiet. The departments have been emptying themselves of voters for several days and morning in all the big government buildings the forces were reduced to the lowest minimum possible. The government service is not allowed to interfere because of this exodus of voters. The heads of the departments have been preparing for the lack of work by getting the routine work well and in such condition that a great number of employees can President Roosevelt will cast his vote at Oyster Bay and Secretaries Shaw, Hitchcock, and other members of the cabinet likewise have journeyed home to cast their ballots.

Of all the government bureaus the largest quota of voters left the government printing office. There are 3,000 men in that office and a considerable portion of them asked for leave of absence. Most of them are Democrats.

SURPRISE

Given Mr. and Mrs. Seymour -- Other Events.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Seymour were given a gay little surprise on Friday evening by a congenial crowd of friends.

One of the many pleasant affairs of Friday afternoon was the reception given by Mrs. M. Nichols' class of boys of Christ church, at the spacious home of Mrs. Joseph Morris, of north West street. The mothers of the boys were patronesses of the afternoon, attending to many details necessary to make it successful. The dining room was attractive with a wealth of chrysanthemums on every hand, and an immense golden pumpkin graced the center of the table from which the following lads served iced cakes to their many friends: Mer Apple, Harry Beebe, George Morris, Roderick Beebe, Bernhard Lawson, Robert Laney, Lee Paulitis, Charles Porter and Martin Sprague.

The members of the Las Mujeres club will meet on Thursday, November 4 at the home of Mrs. Henry Deisel, 709 west North street.

CONGRESS

Convened Again Today in Cuban Capital.

Havana, Nov. 3.—Congress reconvened today after a recess of a fortnight. The matter of a treaty with the United States is the sole topic in political circles. From present indications it looks as though there would be a long delay before the treaty is considered by congress.

QUESTION

Which Places Filipinos in Peculiar Position.

Washington, Nov. 3.—An important question will be heard by Justice Hagner, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia this week, involving the right of the natives of the Philippines to become American citizens. When Antonio M. Oposoy Ycaza, late of the Philippines, applied last summer for naturalization papers they were refused in as much as the applicants for American citizenship must renounce allegiance to the sovereignty of the country from which they came. This, of course, Senator Oposoy was unable to do, as the Philippines are not a sovereign power.

MAGNATE ELKIN

Seriously Injured by Collapse of a Scaffolding.

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Wm. L. Elkins, the traction magnate, was seriously injured by the breaking of a derrick at the Lead Tile Trust Co. in falling, the derrick carried with it a scaffold. James Nendall, an iron worker, whose home is in Chicago, was killed, and James Montgomery and Edward Campbell, pedestrians, were injured.

CAMPAIGN IS ENDED

And the State Headquarters Deserted While Chairmen Have Gone Home to Vote.

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—(Special)—The political headquarters of both the Democratic and Republican state committees are deserted today, the work of the campaign having been completed, and the respective chairmen have left for their homes to vote. Both General Dick and Harvey Garber are congressional candidates, and both are now at their homes waiting the result of the battle of ballots. General Dick is sure of election his district being largely Republican, but Chairman Garber, while in a Democratic district is somewhat solicitous of the result in his case, although he feels that he will be elected.

Neither state committee pushed the campaign, this year with the zeal that is usually characteristic of a state campaign and a state committee. There were two causes for the lack of energy displayed. One was that it seemed impossible to arouse the voters to the least interest in the campaign. The meetings of Senators Foraker and Hanna were about the only Republican meetings that were largely attended on the Republican side, and the meetings of Tom L. Johnson about the only Democratic meeting that attracted a respectable size audience. The other reason for the lack of push on the part of the Democratic committee was the lack of funds. Here in Columbus the Democratic county committee has been woefully in need of funds to prosecute the local campaign.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION MADE

By Referee Charles Rogers of the Bankruptcy Courts.

Ohio Mine Workers are Making Nominations for the Principal Officers of the State Organization.

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—(Special)—Referee Charles Rogers, of the bankruptcy court has handed down a very important decision respecting mortgages. In substance the court holds that chattel mortgages made by domestic corporations doing business in Ohio must be filed in the office of the township clerk where the corporation is located by its charter, or otherwise the mortgage is void against creditors in bankruptcy. Such a mortgage, however, between parties would be good. The decision was rendered in the Columbus Box Company case and came up on the validity of five mortgages amounting to over $500.

Doors will Open Thursday. The Institute for the Blind will open its doors for a new school year next Thursday morning. The pupils will arrive Wednesday, and the classes will begin promptly Thursday morning. The opening of the institute has been delayed this year from the third Thursday in September, owing to the remodeling and thorough renovation of the buildings, the work requiring much more time than had been contemplated.

Old Officers will be Chosen. Nomination blanks will be mailed the unions affiliating with the Ohio Mine Workers, this week to be filled out by them with the names of members aspiring to the three principal offices of the organization and to be members of the executive board of the auditing committee. The unions are requested to have the blanks in the state office by November 30. There will no doubt be a number of nominees, if past years can be taken as a criterion. The present officers are President W. H. Haskins, vice president, D. H. Sullivan, and secretary-treasurer, G. W. Savage. The very friendly relations between the organization and the operators, which now exists, is due largely, and principally to the manner in which these three officers have so admirably conducted the affairs of the organization. It is very probable that they will be re-elected by big majorities.

An Effect of the Strike. One of the effects of the big coal strike came to the front when the Franklin county commissioners opened the bids for the coal to be used in the court house and jail this year. About 850 tons are used, and usually there are about a dozen bidders, but this year there were but two bidders, one at $2.70 per ton and the other at $2.75. The very steep price bid suggests the aroma of a combine. Last year the county secured its coal at $1.69 per ton.

Manchester, Eng., Nov. 3.—A dispatch today announces that Samuel Scott, a member of parliament, has purchased the ancestral home of George Washington, near Banbury. George Tracewell, of south Central avenue, is now a regular member of the south Lima fire department, having assumed the duties of his new position Saturday morning. He is a popular resident of this locality whose many friends are confident he will

Will Be Married.
The friends of Miss Norah Whistler, who has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murray, on east Kibby street, left yesterday afternoon for Brazil, Ind., where she will be married in a few days to Milton James, cashier of the Brazil National bank.
Mr. James came here to accompany the bride elect to their future home.
Miss Whistler's many friends here are pleased to express congratulations in advance.

Foot Crushed.
Frank Rabe, residing on Rocco avenue, had his left foot painfully crushed about nine o'clock this morning. He was working at Morrison & Sinclair's establishment on west Erieoka street, when a heavy piece of steel fell upon his foot, causing the injury. He was removed in a cab to his home where he will be laid up for some time, as a result of the accident.

Badly Frightened.
The crew upon an extra west bound freight on the Lake Erie and Western were terribly frightened Friday night when about three miles east of this city. Engineer Louis Swartz, suddenly observed something directly ahead greatly resembling a crowd of men.
The engineer not having time to stop the train, closed his eyes and awaited the awful consequences. When he again ventured to look out, the track for many feet was strewn with shredded corn fodder, a shock of which had been placed upon the track by some practical joking farmer.

New Residents.
Harry Kerr, with his family, will move this week from the country, to the house he recently purchased on Uric acid does it. We can drive it all out of your system. We have been

Our doctors have discovered a se-

THE STAGE.
Promrose & Dockstader's minstrels from the day of their incorporation have been and will continue to be the entertainment of the elect and elite, the recognized fashionable and principal popular pastime of the entire English speaking world, and it is not strange that it is so, as minstrelsy is one of the best and cleanest of all theatrical offerings. Pure people patronize purity and perfection on the stage. Fun without a blush, humor without a taint, and hearty laughter are evoked by capable, clever comedians. Whenever this company opens in New York city, the most critical centre in the United States to be pleased. It plays to crowded houses every time and at such prices as only the best talent can command. This celebrated company will be seen at the Faurot opera house tonight.

Of the many plays founded upon characters and incidents of the American Revolutionary period, there is none that appeals so strongly to patriotism as that of "Nathan Hale" which Howard Kyle will present at the Faurot opera house next Wednesday evening, Nov. 5. Doubtless the realization that it is true history instead of fiction has much to do with the influence of this play upon its hearers.
It is a play that acts upon the mind and the heart. Clyde Fitch from all accounts, was extremely fortunate in this drama. He made it an enduring work; a play that will last while American Independence is remembered. It has comedy that is natural and consistent; it excites pleasure and laughter; it has love scenes that are natural and charming, though ending in sadness. It has patriotism that thrills and lasts. It is a lesson for our schoolboys; as good today as the day Nathan Hale left school to go forth in behalf of his country. Howard Kyle as the exponent of Nathan Hale, has been winning all sorts of praise for his admirable portrayal of the title role; an excellent general actor, Kyle has achieved marked distinction in this role which he has made famous, having played it twice across the continent and back; and wherever he has appeared he has been solicited to return.

SPORTS.
Van Wert high school foot ball team showed up in better form Saturday, but was still lacking in skill and strength to defeat Lima high school.
The contest was spirited from start to finish and Lima won by a score of 11 to 9, making two touchdowns and one successful kick of the goal by Hill. The game with Findlay has been cancelled and it looks now as though there would be no further contests this season, the unfortunate injury to the two St. Marys players here having a tendency to create a prejudice against the game by parents and school managements.

A Kick From Findlay.
The luck of the high school football management this year is microscopical, says the Findlay Republican.
First, Fosteria cancels her date, then Toledo decides she doesn't care to play such weak elevens. Ada follows with a cancellation and lastly Lima falls into the same rut. Schedules are of little use, nowadays. About every Thursday, everybody sends a cancellation to everybody else, and then all scramble to secure good attractions for the Saturday dates.
Forfeits would stop all this and they are bound to come sooner or later.

Won the Championship.
The joy over the defeat of Wisconsin by Ann Arbor University, Saturday, 6 to 9, spread to Lima where students of the Michigan college, who were at home congratulated each other and sang the praises of their Alma Mater. Michigan has settled the question of the Western championship for 1902, as the other teams to be met are not classed as strong as the one defeated in Saturday's stub-victory, but although the scrimmages were fierce at times, none of the players were injured to speak of.

Of Allen County.

For Prosecuting Attorney,
WM. KLINGER,
Of Allen County.

For County Recorder,
P. T. MELL,
Of Allen County.

For County Commissioner,
WILLIAM J. JUDKINS,
Of Allen County.

For Infirmary Director,
DAVID STEPLETON,
Of Allen County.

George Feltz has been a splendid Auditor, during his first term. Vote for him for re-election and you will be assured of faithful administration in that office for another term.

The Lima Gazette of yesterday, takes occasion to slightly refer to C. A. Graham's efforts in Allen county as a Sunday school worker. While Graham was endeavoring to help build up the spiritual condition of the people in Allen county by devoting his spare time to Sunday school work, Tom Edwards was doing his best to build up the spiritual condition by selling whiskey to the local dealers.

C. A. Graham is an honest man of exceptional ability. Elect him as Clerk next Tuesday and the affairs of the Clerk's office will be carefully administered.

Judge Miller has made an excellent record in the Probate Judge's office. No better man can be chosen for the position. Elect him for a second term and good service is assured.

Boss Hall is scared. Is one of his paragraphs in the Gazette yesterday, he admits that the Republicans are deserting him, and says great things may be accomplished. "If every Republican will only do his duty." However many Republicans who interpret their duty according to their own idea, will vote the Democratic ticket, deeming it a duty they owe themselves to turn down the gang of Republicans who assume to own that party in Allen county.

William Klinger now serving his first term as Prosecuting Attorney is a fearless and capable official. Elect him for a second term next Tuesday and endorse his good work.

W. J. Judkins will make a most efficient County Commissioner. He is well equipped for the work, and deserves the vote of every Democrat.

THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

The Democracy of Allen county this year have a ticket that is without a blemish and it will be elected tomorrow by a handsome majority. The personnel of the ticket commends itself to the voters:

FOR AUDITOR, GEORGE FELTZ.

One of the most important offices in any county is that of Auditor. In this office the business which directly concerns every taxpayer is transacted and it is necessary that a most competent man be selected for the position. In the person of George Feltz, whom the Democracy of Allen county present this fall for re-election, are combined all the qualifications which go to make up an ideal auditor. Mr. Feltz is now serving his first term, and his administration of the business of that very important office during his first term has been such as to commend him to the people as most worthy of re-election by an overwhelming majority. Mr. Feltz is an expert accountant and is a man of the most strict integrity. He is genial and courteous and assisted by his corps of able deputies, gives the most careful attention to the legion of people who have business to transact in the auditor's office. He has been a resident of Lima for many years, and his business life has been unimpeachable. He has carried into the auditor's office the same strict rules of business which have characterized his private transactions, and his election on November will insure the people of Allen county another term of most careful and conscientious administration of the affairs of the auditor's office.

FOR CLERK, C. A. GRAHAM.

One of the most earnest and energetic Democrats in Allen county is C. A. Graham, of Jackson township, the candidate for Clerk of the Courts of Allen county. For years he has assisted in fighting the battles of his party and has contributed freely of his time, money and energy to aid in the success of the Democratic ticket in township, county or state elections. Now when he is himself a conspicuous figure upon the ticket his legion of friends throughout Allen county will come enthusiastically to his support and give him the position he is so eminently qualified to fill. There is no man in Allen county better fitted for the position of clerk of the courts than C. A. Graham. He is affable, obliging and courteous to all; is a man of sterling worth and strict integrity and the intricate and important business in the clerk's office will be carefully looked after by him when he is installed in the office.

FOR PROBATE JUDGE, A. D. MILLER.

While serving the people of Allen county upon his first term as Probate Judge, A. D. Miller has demonstrated his efficiency to fill that important position. He was elected three years ago by a handsome majority which will be increased next Tuesday when the people of Allen county will re-elect him for another three years. Judge Miller is admirably equipped for the position he now occupies, for not only is he a man of sound judgment, but he is an attorney and his legally trained mind enables him to exercise his judicial powers in cases where knotty legal points are involved, with a facility that would be difficult for any one other than a lawyer. The business in the probate office was never conducted in a more able and satisfactory manner than under Judge Miller's administration and the people will endorse him by a re-election.

FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY WM. KLINGER.

The Democracy of Allen county, in presenting for the votes of the people of Allen county the name of William Klinger, as their candidate for prosecuting attorney, do so with the full knowledge and belief that not in the history of the county has there been an incumbent of that important position who has filled it with greater care or ability than Wm. Klinger, who is now serving his first term. He is an official who is conscientious and fearless in the discharge of his duties and pays the most rigid attention to the details of his office.

His administration during his first term has given general satisfaction to his constituents and a substantial endorsement of his course will be the majority he will receive next Tuesday, when he will be enthusiastically re-elected.

FOR RECORDER, P. T. MELL.

Every person who buys or sells a piece of real estate in Allen county is interested in the man who is to be elected to fill the position of Recorder. The records kept in that office concern every person who owns a foot of property and it is vitally important that a competent man be kept in charge there. P. T. Mell, the present recorder, who is now a candidate for re-election has demonstrated his fitness for the position he occupies by giving an ideal administration of the office during his first term. He has managed the business of that important office in a way that commands the commendation of everyone who has had business to transact with him. He is a man of the highest integrity, is capable, industrious and energetic and the people of Allen county cannot do better than to return him for a second term.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER, W. J. JUDKINS.

The County Commissioners more closely represent the people than any other county officials. They are the board who buy the supplies, make the contracts for building bridges, constructing the pikes and a thousand other things which must be done to carry on the business of a large prosperous county like Allen. It is important that a man of judgment and experience be elected each year to serve upon this board, and it is such a man that the Democracy present this fall in the person of William J. Judkins. Mr. Judkins is one of Marion township's most thrifty farmers. He is honest, industrious and capable, and possesses all the qualifications needed to constitute an excellent commissioner of the county. He has been successful in his own business and will apply the same ability to the county's business that he has to his own.

THE INFIRMARY DIRECTOR, DAVID STEPLETON.

The Democrats of Allen county this fall present for the position of Infirmary Director, one of Shawnee township's most esteemed farmers—David Stepleton. Mr. Stepleton's Democracy is of the kind which commends him to his party. For as many years as he has been a voter he has devoted his time, his ability, his money and his energy to assisting his party win her battles, and those whom he has assisted in former years will see that a handsome big majority is rolled up for him on next Tuesday. Mr. Stepleton will make a most excellent member of the board. He is a practical man whose advice and recommendations upon questions pertaining to the management of Allen county's charitable institution will be carefully regarded.

Tom Edwards flooded the town with circulars yesterday, imploring the voters to help elect him to office. The chief argument used in it to influence the voter, is the statement made that Tommie was born in Sugar Creek township, where he was a real young boy, and sometime after that event, which was an important one to him, he removed into Allen county, where he has resided for some years. For their remarkable accomplishment, he thinks he should be rewarded with an office.

Vote for David Stepleton for Infirmary Director. He is honest, capable and will be a valuable addition to the Infirmary board.

The Republican Gazette has been making a determined effort, throughout the campaign now closing, to mislead the voters and taxpayers of this city and county on the question of taxation, as advocated by Mayor Tom Johnson, of Cleveland. The Gazette says that Johnson's single tax theory contemplates placing all of the taxes of the country on land, and in this manner throwing the burden of taxation upon the farmer and land owners. The editor of the Gazette well knows that Mayor Johnson's tax theory does not contemplate placing a greater burden of taxation upon the farmer but on the contrary contemplates a system of taxation that will make the burden lighter for the farmer. As Mr. Johnson stated in his meeting in this city, and in response to a question asked by the editor of the Gazette, the system of taxation that he advocates is one that will make land values the basis for taxation. If a street railway company operates a franchise over the streets of a city, that street railway company shall be taxed according to the valuation of the land as utilized, the earning capacity of the railway line and the value of the franchise held over the land on which the railroad is operated being taken as a basis of the valuation to be placed on the tax duplicate. It is Mayor Johnson's idea that a railroad, owning a right of way through a county should be taxed on the value of that right of way in the same manner as the farmer is taxed on the valuation of his farm land.

The editor of the Gazette insults an intelligent community by assuming that the readers of its articles will be so easily misled as to believe its misconstruction of the single tax theory.

A capable Recorder is a necessity in a county like Allen. P. T. Mell is one of the ablest Recorders who ever filled the office. Elect him to a second term next Tuesday, and the good work will continue.

TOMORROW'S BATTLE.

The work of the campaign is about completed and at 1:30 tomorrow morning the battle of the ballots will begin. The prospects for Democratic success in Ohio are excellent, if the people will only think before they vote, as to what the ultimate purposes and intentions of the two political parties are. The Republican party stands committed to trusts and monopolies, to socialism and to whatever will tend to oppress the people and favor the masters. On the other hand the Democratic party is outspoken in its opposition to trusts; is against monopolies and favors legislation that will give all classes an equal chance, with governmental favoritism to none.

In Allen county the Republican bosses have been trying hard to whip their people into line, but there is an open revolt against their domineering, which will drive hundreds of Republicans away from the support of the ticket and their votes will all go to the Democrats.

Hall and Rumbaugh, who profess to own the Republican votes and boast of being able to cram any old ticket down the throats of the voters in their party and compel them to vote it have been vainly trying to stem the tide, and for weeks past have been imploring the Democrats to come over into their camp and help them, but their frantic appeals have been ineffectual. The Democrats of Allen county have no intention of being used by the gang and will vote their party ticket straight.

The people of Allen county in casting their ballots for member of congress tomorrow will give Harvey Garber a large majority over L. H. Rogers. The free-coin policy of Rogers as mayor of Lima has disgusted hundreds of Republicans who would have cast for him a complimentary vote had it not been for the fact that he repudiated all of his anti-election promises and turned the town wide open as soon as he became a member of the mayor's office. They have no use for a candidate for congress, who levies tribute upon the saloon element for campaign purposes, granting certain privileges to committees in consideration thereof. When the ballots are counted out Mr. Rogers will find his vote will be shy because the people of Lima do not approve of him nor his methods.

THREE TARIFF SCHOOLS.

Triangular Squabble of the Protectionists.

THE HOWAITS HAVE STEADDED.

Whipped into Line by the Democrats or "Stand Pat" Faction—Massachusetts Advocates of Free Raw Materials Can't Be Seared—King Canoe Ready For Independents.

All Republicans believe in protection, but there is a shade of difference between the schools into which they are divided. The Massachusetts school believes in free raw material, and the manufacturers there are denouncing it. Then there is the Iowa school, which believes that the tariff fosters trusts. This declaration so shocked Speaker Henderson that he declined to be a candidate, especially as he found a "great many" Republicans in his district who believed that the trust protecting tariff should be revised.

The largest school, which might be called the college of protection, is still the dominant faction. These extreme and uncompromising protectionists have an organ, the American Economist. It constantly denounces and derides the reformers and preaches that it would be dangerous to disturb the present tariff law. This, being also the idea of Senator Hanna, may, therefore, be known as the "stand pat" school.

The Economist has been sorely troubled lately, and has eased its mind by formulating a "tariff plank," in which, it says, "is told the whole story of the operation and effect of protection upon American labor and business." That statement, of course, is very misleading, for it would require several large volumes to tell such a story, but such exaggeration is constantly indulged in by the Economist and its protectionist followers. It ends its "plank" with this declaration:

"We therefore heartily commend the Dingley law and demand that when any of its schedules are revised it shall be for the strengthening rather than the weakening of the protective policy as expressed therein."

That means even higher duties and that war is declared against the Massachusetts and Iowa schools of protectionists. So far it has not scared the New Englanders, but the Howaite candidates for congress are now occupied in the perilous feat of riding the protection horse and the "tariff fosters trusts" horse at the same time, and it need hardly be said that their paths lie in different directions, their only object being to fool the voters to again vote the Republican ticket.

The Iowa idea was undoubtedly meant as a sop to the tariff reform Republicans who abound on the Iowa prairies, but even the wayfarer soon, though a fool, must see the Republican leaders have determined to quash the reform movement. The Economist, or "stand pat" school will dominate the next congress if the Republican party has a majority to organize it, and the tariff will be continued as a trust breaker.

The only chance for revision and for stopping the fostering of trusts is for those Republicans who believe that it is time to cry a halt on trust exactions to vote for candidates for congress who are not afraid to declare for radical reform—that is, to place trust productions on the free list and thus make the trusts sell as cheaply in the United States as they now do in Europe. That is the Democratic plank, and the Republican tariff reformers must adopt it if they wish to accomplish anything.

A Republican member of congress who believes in tariff reform when he enters the portals of the capitol will be like a sheep in the hands of the shepherds—dumb and may not open his mouth, or he will be ostracized and driven into the political woods. Political history tells of but few such patriots. Some may be found to talk independently before election, but when they reach Washington and the full power of the Republican machine and King Caucus is turned on them they, like their fellows, will be in the hands of the oligarchy that dictates legislation.

The only relief in sight for those voters who believe in tariff reform is to vote for the Democratic candidates who are pledged to revise the tariff and are not under obligations to combine and corporations.

The Negro in Politics. The Republican politicians in the southern states, and that means the federal officeholders, have ostracized the negroes from being delegates to state conventions, with the evident intention of preventing them from taking part in the next national Republican convention. President Roosevelt seems to be helping the matter along by appointing white men to federal offices in the southern states. Three bishops and some other colored notables called on the president for an explanation. He explained to the satisfaction of the bishops that he was not discriminating against the colored brother. Yet he is known to favor the building up of a white Republican party in the south and is appointing renegade Democrats to fill the offices. In Indiana and in some other states where the colored voters hold the balance of power how many state, county or town offices are given to them to repay their devotion to the Republican party? The negro will never get his fair share of the spoils until he shows his power occasionally by defeating the Republicans.

MOVING THE CROPS.

The Only Crops Wall Street Moves Are the Pieces of "Lamb."

What a safe old Wall Street gag that is that the New York banks must furnish the money to move the crops and that money is tight there in consequence. The facts are that nearly every bank in the United States keeps an account with some New York bank and usually a comfortable balance there to draw against for exchange and because a small interest, generally 2 per cent, is paid on daily or monthly balances. When the harvest time rolls around, the country banks have a chance to loan some of their money to the farmer to pay the harvest hands and draw on their New York balance for that purpose. A little later the banks at centers where wheat, corn, cotton and other farm produce is purchased need their New York balance to loan to the commission men or others who handle farm products, and again the balance in the New York banks is depleted.

For eight or nine months in the year these balances are in the aggregate a large sum and are loaned to the Wall Street broker on call with stocks as security. As the balances are drawn upon by the country and city banks the loans made by the banks with this money are called, and the annual pinch commences in Wall Street. If speculation is lively, the brokers bid against each other for money to carry their deals, and the rate advances, reaching this year so far 40 per cent.

The New York banks, instead of furnishing the money to move the crops, are merely sending the money back to the country banks who own it, just as a bank cashier or pays a check drawn by a depositor on his balance with the bank he does business with.

The further fact is that the banks at the money centers of Chicago, St. Louis and elsewhere are loaning money to the New York banks and the Wall Street brokers to tide them over their difficulties.

New York has not furnished the money to move the crops for years and probably never will again. They are doing business on other people's money and always kick when called upon to return it.

Republican Revolt.

The revolt of Republicans against the "stand pat" idea on the tariff question has assumed large proportions in Massachusetts. Since Senator Lodge with his machine was able to quell the revolt in the state convention six Republican candidates for congress have declared for revision of the tariff as far as free raw products are concerned. In the Third district Rufus H. Dodge is running against Congressman John R. Thayer on a tariff reform platform. In the Seventh district Congressman Roberts stands for revision. In the Eighth Congressman McCull demanded it in his speech of acceptance. In the Twelfth Congressman Powers stands for revision, as does Congressman Lovering in the Fourteenth. And Foss in the Eleventh is even more outspoken. He not only stands for tariff revision, but for reciprocity with Canada, and is publicly answering the speeches of Senator Lodge, declaring that some of his points are rot.

The Democratic heaven is working even in Republican rock ribbed New England. What may we expect elsewhere?

How to Stimulate Shipping.

There is only one just way for the government to help private shipyards, and that is to return to the policy of a tariff for revenue only. Then our commerce would be so stimulated by our ocean vessels carrying cargoes that ways that the shipyards would have all the ships to build that they could handle.—Charleston News and Courier.

WORK

Is to Be Started at Once

On Extension

Of the Columbus & Lake Michigan Road.

Engineering Corps Is to Be Transferred to the North End Soon.

General Offices of the Railroad Will Probably be Located in This City—News of the Railroads.

Civil engineer R. H. Gamble, John Walton and P. M. Boose returned last night from Logan county where they have been at work surveying for the proposed extension of the Columbus & Lake Michigan railroad between this city and Columbus. It is reported from sources thought to be reliable that this engineering corps will be sent within a few days to survey the proposed line of extension from Defiance to the northwest and that steps will be taken to begin the construction work at once.

The extension of this line, which is now a certainty, will give Lima another important railroad and will afford a direct line to Columbus and also to the northwest.

The general offices of the road will probably be established in this city in the near future.

The C. H. & D. Victim.
The body of the unknown man killed by a C. H. & D. train near Defiance, just over the Hancock county line in Putnam county on Thursday is not that of an escapee inmate from the Toledo State hospital, as was supposed for a time. The officials from Mansfield reformatory, who viewed the body, failed to identify it as that of Albert Steakes, who recently escaped from that institution. Dr. Tobey sent an employee to Belmont Saturday to view the body, thinking it might possibly be that of John Kenzie, of Upper Sandusky, who recently escaped from the Toledo State hospital. The body was not that of Kenzie. From the marks on the clothing, it is believed that the dead man had been an inmate of some institution.

Bodies Identified.
The bodies of the two unknown men who were killed in the C. H. & D. wreck at Oxford, Wednesday night, have been positively identified as Virgil Ballentine, aged 18, of 629 Monmouth street, and Harry Prues aged 19, of Monroe street, Newport, Ky. Ballentine was a race horse jockey.

Along all Lines.
Work has been begun on the survey of the new road from Columbus, Ohio, to Lima, following the old Fairport line. The line will pass through Waynesfield, Roundhead, Bellecenter, Reshlyville and West Manchester.

Machinist Mort Polser, of the L. E. & W. is the proud and happy father of a handsome ten-pound boy who arrived at his home on the south side early Saturday morning.

John Conway, of the Lima Locomotive & Machine works, has returned from northern Wisconsin where he was sent by the company to make some important repairs on a Shay engine that has been in the service in that country for some time.

A REMARKABLE SECT.

Strange Mania of the Doukhobors in Canada.

THINK IT WISEFUL TO EAT MEAT.

Religious Ideas of Russian Colonists in Manitoba May Cause Them to Perish This Winter—They Turn Their Animals Out to "God's Will" and Will Not Use Them in Farm Work.

A special to the New York Times from Yorktown, Manitoba, says: Strange fancies sometimes take possession of religious sects, but the strangest of all is probably the distressing mania that has enthralled 5,000 Russian Doukhobors, who have located in western Manitoba. In the Swan river district the government is apprehensive for the remarkable craze that has taken possession of those colonists.

It is well known that the Doukhobors are adverse to shedding blood. This is the reason they emigrated from Russia, and it is also the reason why the Canadian government exempted them from military duty as inducement for their location on the prairie lands of the west. As to what they should eat, this was purely a personal matter; but, as it appears, it was one of the features that was overlooked by the government that will cause immense trouble.

In this country a man may eat what he chooses, and if his religion dictates that he shall conform to a vegetable diet such beliefs are respected. All might have been well had this state of affairs been confined to vegetarianism, but the Doukhobors' religion does not appear to be a finished product. It has been constantly undergoing changes. From the belief that it was a sin to eat meat it seems a long jump to reach the conclusion that it is wrong to eat animal products, but these people have now given up eating milk, butter, cheese, eggs, etc., and the cows, oxen, goats and fowl are increasing and multiplying and waxing fat while the people are on the verge of starvation.

Having reached this absurd position, it was but a step to another and more ridiculous one. It is wrong to eat the flesh of animals, the same line of reasoning made it comparatively easy to condemn the use of leather harness made from the hides of God's creatures, and then followed the condemnation of wooden clothing, because wood grows on the bodies of sheep, which also belong to the Lord. The next step was still more sweeping in its effect on their economic condition. It was wrong to make servants of any of the lower animals, to use them for beasts of burden or for any other purpose.

They had the courage of their convictions and at once turned out their horses, cattle and sheep, driving them to "God's hill" to forage for themselves, placing all the burdens of farm life on their own shoulders. For all drawing purposes, such as hauling heavy loads on wagons, men take the place of horses and oxen. Twelve or fourteen men hitherto to a plow suffice for this purpose, and it is the only method employed by them in the cultivation of the soil. Women, even, are employed in this manner, though when coming into town men only are seen hauling the wagons and buggies. Every day in the streets of Yorktown dozens of men may be seen drawing wagons, hauling what little produce they may have for sale and carrying back to their farms flour and other necessities.

The Doukhobors are clad exclusively in cotton clothes and wear rubber boots or shoes knit or woven with bladder twine, which they buy for the purpose. Their food consists of bread and water and such vegetables as they grow and wild berries and herbs which they gather. Their farms are neglected and their stock, of which they had much, is running wild in the hills, where it will all die during the winter or be appropriated by those who are not of their religious faith and who will at least give the stock shelter.

With the advent of cold weather starvation and disease must certainly follow, and they appear to know this, for they have been in correspondence with authorities in southern California, Nevada, Arizona and Australia, with a view to emigration to a warmer climate where the conditions would enable them to subsist on the soil without trespassing on the possessions of the animal kingdom. It is needless to say that no one wants them, so they are still in Manitoba, an elephant on the hands of the government that brought them from Russia a few years ago to develop the prairie land of the west.

Kitchener's Autograph Estimate.
That Lord Kitchener's modesty is equaled only by his brusqueness was proved the other day during his stay with Lord Londonderry at Wynyard park, says a London cable dispatch to the New York Herald. The hero of South Africa has been pursued by an army of autograph hunters and snappers. Finally to one young man who had served in South Africa Lord Kitchener turned and said impatiently: "Young man, make your own autograph worth something. Mine is worth nothing."

GAIN

Made in the Last Two Years

Is Very Large

In the Live Stock Traffic in America.

For the Nine Months in This Year Ending With September,

The Increase Will Run Into the Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Value.

Washington, Nov. 3.—(Special)—The end of the first three quarters of the calendar year affords a good point of retrospect from which to compare the volume of commercial movements in the domestic trade of the United States with that of the preceding year. The September Summary of Internal Commerce, issued by the Treasury Bureau of Statistics, furnishes statistical returns for this purpose. Its reports show that the live stock traffic during September was larger than for the corresponding month in either of the two preceding years at the five markets of Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Louis and St. Joseph taken together. A total of 56,996 carloads of stock were received during September 1902, while 52,614 carloads arrived in September 1901, and 50,716 carloads in September 1900. In two years, therefore, there has been a gain of 6,280 cars, or 12.38 per cent. For the nine months ending with September, 528,432 head of cattle reached these markets, compared with 523,336 head in 1901, and 479,613 head in 1900. Receipts of hogs show a decrease, 11,497,792, having arrived for the first three quarters of this year, 13,413,000 head in 1901, and 12,593,949 head in 1900.

Coastwise commerce on the Great Lakes for the 9 months ending with September amounted to 40,102,870 tons of freight received, compared with 31,857,325 tons a year ago. The iron ore movement amounted to 20,998,066 tons, and the coal movement to 7,664,663 tons, shipped mainly from lower lake ports to domestic destinations. The registered tonnage movement for the 9 months amounted to 55,134,073 net tons, representing 60,947 arrivals of vessels. At the Sault Ste. Marie canals freight passed amounting to 26,312,922 tons this season, compared with 20,369,066 tons in 1901, and 19,901,437 tons in 1900.

At the North Atlantic seaboard for 9 months ending with September 1902, the New York Produce Exchange reports 159,506,717 bushels of grain, and flour and meal reduced to bushels, received at Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore. For the corresponding period of 1901, the total receipts were 253,645,055 bushels. September receipts at New York amounted to 12,694,132 bushels, or 92.15 per cent. by rail; 1,039,009 bushels, or 7.33 per cent. by canal; and 71,431 bushels, or .5 per cent. by river and coast. At Boston for 9 months ending with September this year, 20,521,481 bushels arrived; in contrast with 37,522,573 bushels in 1901, as reported by the Chamber of Commerce. At Philadelphia, grain receipts including wheat, corn and oats, for 9 months, were 13,685,944 bushels for the current year, as against 29,768,476 bushels in the first 9 months of 1901, according to the Commercial Exchange of that city. The Baltimore Chamber of Commerce reports 16,356,471 bushels of wheat, corn, oats and rye thus far this year, compared with 50,316,240 bushels in 1901.

The amount of iron and steel originating in Southern territory for 9 months was 1,462,550 tons, compared with 1,233,948 tons for the first 9 months of 1901. Receipts of new stores at 11 Southern primary markets this season to the first Friday in September amounted to 812,737 barrels of rosin and 310,338 casks of turpentine, compared with 572,193 barrels of rosin last year, and 334,84 casks of turpentine. The sales of leaf tobacco at Southern markets for the commercial year ending October 1, were as follows: At Danville, Va., 22,635,000 pounds, compared with 27,000,000 pounds last year; at Richmond, Va., 7,176,000 pounds last year; at Lynchburg, Va., 31,746,100 pounds compared with 31,768,800 pounds last year; at Durham, N. C., 7,100,000 pounds (approximately) compared with 9,462,000 pounds last year; and at Winston, N.

Be Something Behind It

Which a Trial

Will Bring Out Next Wednesday.

First Session of Criminal Court Has Been Assigned for That Day.

Harry Turnipseed Indicted for Burglary Takes the Place of Those Who Have Been Sentenced.

The day, after tomorrow, politics and election will give way to the adjustment of business affairs and legal matters will continue without interruption until the work done by the recent grand jury is finally disposed of. When the prisoners were arraigned Harvey Howsher and Martin Griffin entered pleas of not guilty, but since then both have come before the court acknowledged their offense and took their sentences. Their trials before the petit jury were set for Wednesday November 5, but pleas of guilty left a day open and arraignments were made to bring Harry Turnipseed before the bar of justice.

The latter was arrested for breaking into a chest of carpenter's tools at a new house being built in the Lima Machine Works addition and helping himself to several tools which he later pawned at a second hand store.

The tools were found and a description furnished which led to Turnipseed's identification by chief Mills and detective Hugh Patton. Turnipseed was arrested and led the officers to where some of the stolen goods remained scattered. He has pleaded not guilty. However, and attorney Kent Hughes has been appointed to conduct the case on Wednesday, which was originally set for November 26.

Court's Distribution.

Judge Cunningham decided a case today which has been pending for some time. It originally came in as a divorce proceeding in which Laura B. Chapman was plaintiff and Albert O. Chapman was defendant. The latter died while the action was still pending and the master decided today had to do with a life insurance policy in which Mrs. Margaret C. Patterson and Henry C. Chapman were the principals. They are husband and wife but do not live together. There were claims and counter claims, but the court in making the distribution gave to R. T. Chapman the amount agreed upon, he to pay the costs of this issue. To Rebecca Patterson, the defendant, the balance. The amount of the insurance was $2,300.

Melhorn Expired at His Home in Kenton.

Sat on the Bench in Drenched Clothing

And an Illness Followed Which Proved to be Fatal—The Sorrowing Widow Was a Resident of Lima.

At 9-30 o'clock Saturday morning occurred the death of Hon. Charles M. Melhorn, one of the three judges of the court of Common Pleas of the third subdivision of the Tenth Judicial district of Ohio.

Death, according to his physicians, was due to acute nephritis, a very severe form of inflammation of the kidneys. The attack was brought on by chills resulting from exposure in a storm on the morning of October 6, last. On this occasion, Judge Melhorn left his home in this city on an early train for Findlay to hold court. He was unable to secure a conveyance and walked to the station. His clothing was saturated with water upon his arrival, but notwithstanding he proceeded on his way and opened court at the appointed hour. He remained in the court room in wet clothing throughout the day, not having had a change. Toward evening he became quite ill and the next day he was forced to return home. He was recovering nicely up until Thursday evening when he took another chill. This morning his condition was more serious than it had even been before and he died at 9-30 o'clock.

Judge Melhorn was forty-eight years of age. He was elected judge of the court of Common Pleas in November, 1893, and took his seat on the bench February 9th, 1895. He was re-elected in 1898 and entered upon the duties of his second term on the 9th of February, 1900. In all he has been a judge almost seven years. He was married to Laura Maude Churchill, daughter of J. R. Churchill, of this city, October 17, 1881, besides the widow he is survived by three sisters, two brothers and two sons. The latter are Kent who is attending college at the University of Pennsylvania and Donald who is at home.

Police Trying to Boost the Latter's Campaign by Making a Weak Bluff Against the "Wide Open" Town.

On the eve of election the police made a raid on one of the scores of disorderly houses in the city, for the purpose of trying to again deceive the advocates of a reform administration and secure their votes for Mayor L. H. Rogers for congress. The victims of the raid were three women and two men who were found in a resort on Boiler avenue when night sergeant Bacom and patrolmen Fenstermaker, Hillstein and Grant swooped down upon the place about 1 o'clock this morning.

The women registered at the police station as Allie Engle, Bertha Phearsen and Adda Jones and the men gave their names as Dan Spees, and Norval Ford. All were arraigned in mayor's court this morning and all pleaded guilty except the Jones woman whose case will be tried Wednesday. The Engle woman was fined $10 for conducting a disorderly house and Bertha Phearsen and the two men were fined $50 each and given a chance to go and earn the money before paying it. Frank Boyd and George Butler, two prisoners who were arraigned on charges of drunkenness, were dismissed. Thomas Ryan, also charged with drunkenness, was dismissed.

At St. Marys Carry Their War Into Court.

Friday night according to a dispatch from Wapakoneta, David A. Clark, of St. Marys, ex-county treasurer, just retired and editor of the St. Marys Argus and Daily News, was arrested in that city on a peace warrant sworn out by D. C. Woolpert, editor of the St. Marys Graphic and placed under $500 bond for his appearance this afternoon. A long standing personal and political enmity between the two editors culminated Thursday in the publication in the St. Marys Graphic of a long article, written by Woolpert, fiercely attacking Clark, calling him a liar, robber and libertine, and accusing him of many crimes. A personal encounter followed yesterday on the street. Clark, who is a little man and a cripple, started for Woolpert, a six-footer, when Woolpert lodged behind a tree and threatened to kill Clark if he came nearer. Clark's arrest on a warrant signed by Woolpert, who alleges that he fears Clark will shoot and kill him, followed last night, and after the hearing today, Woolpert will be arrested for carrying concealed weapons.

MAYOR ROGERS PLAYING POLITICS.

Fireman Galloway to be Sacrificed to Make Room for Another.

Thomas Galloway a member of the central fire department has been suspended from duty and his suspension will be reported to the city council this evening, with the charge of drinking given as the cause of suspension. Galloway's friends are very indignant over the affair and declare that Mayor Rogers was the real cause of the suspension, the scheme, which is backed up by the Republican executive committee, being to sacrifice Galloway in order to make room in the department for an alleged Democrat whom they expect to support the Republican ticket in return for the appointment.

Galloway's friends say that if Mayor Rogers wants to cause suspensions for city employees drinking on duty it would be far more consistent for him to begin with certain members of his police department.
